

Spread Your Love

by IonLion

^E Your pain has carved the bowl, ^A where your heart can hold... ^E The love you're looking for is, ^A flowing through you
^E Your suffering hollows out, ^A a place for joy to fill... ^E Like water on a rock, ^A eventually it will.
^{F#} Open up a hole, ^A and watch it fill with meaning... ^{F#} your soul is asking you to be a human being...

^E and spread your love... ^A spread your love... ^E spread your love... ^A spread your love... ^E spread your love

^E There's a time to gather, ^A and a time to let go... ^E There's no room to learn, ^A when your mind is always full.
^E Life is like the tides, they go down and come up... ^E Be thankful for them both, ^A the full and empty cup.

^{F#} So cast those seeds to the wind, ^A they're no use in your hands... ^{F#} Your better nature's calling, ^A we were born to sing and dance...

^E and spread your love... ^A spread your love... ^E spread your love... ^A spread your love... ^E spread your love

^E A fallen tree decays, ^A and returns to the earth... ^E Life is just the cycle, ^A of death and rebirth.
^E Something surely dies, ^A so that you may live... ^E Take with great respect, ^A and feel blessed when you can give.
^{F#} We're standing on the mountain, ^A of all that's come before... ^{F#} Gifts are to be shared, ^A so what you're waiting for...

^E spread your love... ^A spread your love... ^E spread your love... ^A spread your love... ^E spread your love
